Abstract

This is an example of how to format an extended abstract. The title is Times New Roman 10 point bold, indented by 1 cm. The text is Times New Roman 9 point, with a first line indent of 1 cm. The abstract is a single paragraph which may be up to 300 words long. It should not contain information not included in the abstract. The abstract may not contain references, equations or the word 'we'. Write 'the abstract', not 'this abstract'.

1. SYNOPSIS

This is an example of how an abstract should be formatted. The text above shows how the running head, title, subtitle (if applicable), author names and affiliations, and abstracts should be formatted. The heading immediately above this paragraph is a first level abstract heading; it is Times New Roman 10 point regular capitals. The body text of the abstract is Times New Roman 10 point regular, with a first line indent of 1 cm.

Please use these examples to format your abstract. Applying the styles saved in this document to your text should format it correctly. Your word processing software may also contain a tool such as a 'format painter' that will enable you to copy the formatting from the example text to your own text. Alternatively, the information given in this template should enable to select the correct format for each section.

2. (KEY) RESULTS

The text of an abstract submitted to this conference must be original, with any material from copyrighted works (including illustrations, tables, and text quotations) included with the permission of the copyright holder. The contributor should, therefore, make sure that any permissions and rights required to publish any third-party content have been obtained and that all published material is correctly referenced.

3. CONCLUSIONS

4. REFERENCES

In accordance with good academic practice, reference sources should be cited in the text to support the assertions it contains. IAEA style is to use numbered references in square brackets. There are different formats for sources such as books [1], internal reports [2], personal communication [3], unpublished data [4], single chapters from books [5], journal articles [6], websites and online databases [7], abstracts from proceedings [8], presentations including slides and handouts [9], and INFCIRCs [10]. Sources ‘in preparation’ or ‘in press’ use these terms in place of the year. Titles are given in their original languages if they use Latin alphabets, or translated into English for languages that do not use Latin alphabets. Please see the reference list below for examples of how to format the sources numbered [1–11]. The text in the reference list is Times New Roman 9 point regular.
