

Cédric Lewandowski

Vice-President, Group Senior Executive, Nuclear and Thermal, EDF, France

Mr Cédric Lewandowski is has since July 2019 been serving as Group Senior Executive Vice President, Nuclear and Thermal, at Électricité de France (EDF). He began his career at EDF in 1998, acting as the EDF President's Chief of Staff, later serving as Director of the Electric Transport and Vehicles Division and Director of the EDF Commerce Territorial Authorities Division.

In May 2012, Mr. Lewandowski was named Chief of Staff of the French Minister of Defense, Jean-Yves Le Drian, in which capacity he acted until May 2017. From 2017 to June 2019, he acted as EDF Group Senior Executive Vice President in charge of Innovation, Strategy and Corporate Responsibility. Mr. Lewandowski's honors include the Chevalier de l'Ordre de la Légion d'Honneur (France).