

Mr Tim Gitzel

President and CEO,
Cameco Corporation

Biography

Mr Tim Gitzel was appointed President and CEO of Cameco Corporation in 2011, having joined the company in 2007 as Chief Operating Officer. He has extensive experience in Canadian and international uranium mining activities through more than 30 years of senior management and legal experience.

Prior to joining Cameco, he was executive vice-president for the mining business unit of AREVA based in Paris, France with responsibility for global uranium, gold, exploration, and decommissioning operations in 11 countries.