

Ms. Maritza Juárez Durán

Director of the National Fruit Fly Program, National service for Health, Safety and Quality of Agricultural food (SENASICA), Mexico

Ms Maritza Juárez Durán is an Agricultural Engineer specializing in agricultural parasitology and holds a MS in Agricultural Entomology and Acarology. She is the Director of the National Fruit Fly Program, where she put into operation the new Mediterranean Fly Breeding and Sterilization Plant in Metapa de Domínguez, Chiapas, Mexico. Among her professional achievements is the native fruit fly-free zones in northern states of Mexico.