

Mr Mingang Huang

China National Nuclear Corporation,
China

Biography

Mr Mingang Huang serves as the Chief Economist and Chief Auditor at the China National Nuclear Corporation (CNNC), where he also chairs the Strategy and Management Consulting Committee. With a background in nuclear reactor engineering from Xi'an Jiaotong University and executive business degrees from Tsinghua University and the University of Texas, Mr Huang has held leadership roles including President of China Nuclear Energy Industry Corporation and Director of CNNC's International Cooperation and Planning departments.

He is a member of the Board of Management of the World Nuclear Association and contributes to international nuclear policy and strategic development.