

Ms Camille Peiffer

Andra, France

Biography

Ms Peiffer is a Public Participation Officer at the French national radioactive waste management agency. She designs and leads participatory processes related to the long-term management of nuclear waste. With a background in public law and urban planning, she has also worked on territorial governance and citizen engagement at various scales, including internationally.