

Mr Elias Melly Kipchumba, Chief Executive Officer, National Cancer Institute of Kenya (NCIK), Ministry of Health of Kenya

Dr. Melly is a medical doctor and specialist radiation oncology with extensive experience in patient care, research, training, and policy at local, regional, and global levels. He has published in reputed journals on breast, lung, cervical, esophageal, head and neck cancers.

He undertook his Bachelor of Medicine and Surgery at Moi University in Kenya and his graduate studies in Clinical Oncology and Nuclear Medicine at Alexandria University in Egypt.

He is the current CEO of the National Cancer Institute of Kenya (NCI-K) and holds a faculty position with the Moi University School of Medicine.

Dr Melly worked at technical and senior management levels at Moi Teaching and Referral Hospitals as head of the Hemato-oncology Directorate and at Alexandria Cancer Hospitals in the capacity of a CEO.