

Ms Ndeye Yacine Dieng, Head Cancer Office, Division of Non-Communicable Diseases, Ministry of Health and Social Action of Senegal

Dr Ndeye Mbombe Dieng is a physician with a Doctorate in Medicine and a Certificate of Specialised Studies in Occupational Medicine from Cheikh Anta Diop University in Dakar. She is also trained in health statistics, health financing, and health system strengthening, with several national and international certifications obtained between 2019 and 2025.

With more than 15 years of experience in the Senegalese health system, she has worked in refugee health care with an NGO partner of the UNHCR, then headed the outpatient and occupational medicine services at the Kaolack Regional Hospital.

Since 2017, she has been working in the Non-Communicable Diseases Division of the Ministry of Health, where she coordinates the activities of the offices for cancer, chronic respiratory diseases, sickle cell disease, and hemophilia.