Ms Birgit Vogel

Executive Secretary

International Commission for the Protection of the Danube River

Ms Birgit Vogel is the Executive Secretary of the International Commission for the Protection of the Danube River (ICPDR). She is the first woman to hold the role since its establishment. An Austrian water resources manager, she has over 20 years of international experience in transboundary river basin management across Europe, Asia, Africa and the South Caucasus. She previously worked with the Mekong River Commission Secretariat and with GIZ India, supporting the EU–India Water Partnership and river basin policy dialogue.
