THE TREATY FOR THE PROHIBITION OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS IN LATIN AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN
(Tlatelolco Treaty)

Entry into force for Brazil

In a note verbale of 10 June 1994, the Agency was informed that, on 30 May 1994, the instruments necessary to bring the Treaty for the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons in Latin American and the Caribbean into force for the Federative Republic of Brazil had been deposited.

As requested by the Permanent Mission of Brazil to the International Organizations in Vienna, the text of the note is attached hereto for the information of Member States.

NOTE VERBALE

The Permanent Mission of Brazil to the International Organizations in Vienna presents its compliments to the International Atomic Energy Agency and has the honour to inform that on 30 May 1994 the Minister of External Relations of Brazil, Ambassador Celso Luiz Nunes Amorim, has deposited with the Government of the Mexican United States the instruments necessary to the entry into force for Brazil of the Treaty for the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons in Latin America (Treaty of Tlatelolco).

It would be appreciated if this note could be reproduced for the information of all Members as an INFCIRC document.

The Permanent Mission of Brazil avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the International Atomic Energy Agency the assurances of its highest consideration.
